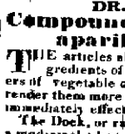
Dillow's Celebrated HEAVE CURE!!!



Which has been used with such success during effect in France and England for the last twenty years is now for the first time offered for sale in this country for the last two years performing the most wonderful cures ever on record in this Country More than

4000 cases of Heaves,

800 cases of Inflamation of the Lungs,

Have been cured by this extraordinary remedy since its introduction in the United States, The following is one of the hundreds of certificates in our possession, proving its Universal efficacy

New Scotland, Albany Co N Y, February 17th, 1848

Messrs Ford & Grant Gentlemen—I have the pleasure to inform you my certificate for the benefit of those who may have horses similarly afflicted

I, hereby certify that one of my best horses in the winter of 1846 7 became afflicted with the heaves to the most aggravated form—which I followed to run for when the second and fourth months without doing anything for him. Having seen the unparalleled popularity of Dillow's Heave Cure I purchased three pair of it, gave it to him and entirely removed the disease From that time to the present he has been in perfectly sound condition

UNIVERSAL CONDITION MEDICINE

Read the testimony of an eye sight Boston Farmer

Hanford Jan ury 8th 1848

Messrs Ford & Grant Gentlemen—At the request of your Agents here I send you my opinion of your Heave Cure As an Universal Condition Medicine, it will be a sure cure for the Heaves and all diseases arising from an affection of the bronchial tubes pectoral and auxiliary glands and the lungs and also from its general and alterative properties I recommend it to be the best medicine extant for diseases of horses, cattle Oh at Founder Dropsy of the Skin and Chest Fever &c &c I am blind Hide Bound Inflamation of the Kidneys and Blood. I conceive it to be a vegetable compound which operates up on the animal system in the same manner that Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla operates upon the human system I would call it a blood purifier from a wrong position or loss of changing the hair which takes place during all sorts of incidental diseases in the whole year, and which gives it the horse a respected and neglected the gores of the skin close up and the eruptions with the fluids cease If left to that condition, Disease in some form must ensue It is at this time that I consider your Invaluable Powder indispensable, as it operates upon the pores and Fluids of the skin and causes the hair to fall out in due time and a new coat for the new and impurities to be thrown off and given up clearance

THOMAS JONES, Farrier

CAUTION—The astonishing success of Dillow's Heave Cure for the last two years in the U States, has induced some persons to imitate and counterfeit it and even go so far as to counterfeit the public against it, and endeavor thereby to palm off their nostrums as the only genuine article We declare that Dillow's Heave Cure is the first article of the kind ever introduced in the United States, and we hereby offer the sum of one thousand dollars to any person who will prove to the contrary. DR. CUMMINGS'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine With these, others of vegetable origin are combined designed to render them more active and consequently more immediately effective

The Dock, or rather a species of it now ranks as a medicinal plant second to no one of the vegetable kingdom With the aid of a distinguished chemist whom the proprietor has consulted in the preparation of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the Dock for any considerable length of time

For many years the proprietor has tested in his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them Recently he conceived the idea of uniting them which has resulted in the production of the compound In this the ingredients are found to act in harmony, and to lose none of the qualities which they separately possess

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed The extract must to be relied on and least liable to decomposit on as procured by simple decoction, he rest to the action of the menstrua usually employed in extracting its virtues, for a long time without heat or any other accelerating agent None is permitted to be used in the compound that has not been obtained by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation.

The Compound is recommended for Scrofulas Erysipelas, Ulcerous affections Eruptions, and Mercurial diseases Also for the numerous maladies arising from sedentary employments, occupations of a harassing and fatiguing nature intense application, exposures to extremes of heat and cold overtaxing the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Neuralgia, Piles, Affections of the Liver, Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia or Indigestion

In diseases of warm climates, with which the proprietor became familiar in his practice in Havana, some years since, the compound will prove particularly efficacious, both as a remedy and a preventative.

This medicine has been for some time in use this city where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice, and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general, to whom he is known

The Great Remedy for Gonorrhœa

GLEET, Stricture, and all maladies compliants in the DR DOUGLASS'S ARABIAN PASTE. Dr Douglass is well known having practiced in the principal cities in the Union, during the last 40 years His only reason for introducing the Paste in this public manner is the consciousness that th ge are thousands of all treated complaints in this city—the hands of individuals who are going down to premature graves by taking the miserable drugs of quacks

Dr D most solemnly affirms that during his practice of forty years this Paste has never, in not a single instance failed of effecting a cure in a few days without any change of diet or hindrance from business He has had a sample of the most stubborn cases—cases that have resisted the most regular course of treatment adopted by our first physicians, for months and even years but after taking the Paste for a few days the angry symptoms disappeared and the patients were discharged, entirely cured

If the unfortunate person should be struggling themselves with quack nostrums, would purchase only one box of the Arabian Paste we should not see so many emaciated bodies and sallow countenances as we do at the present time

☞ In case this Paste should fail to effect a cure in the shortest possible time (ten times the price paid for it will be given the purchasers on returning the empty boxes

For sale only by the original inventor and sole proprietor Dr PETER DOUGLASS at his Office No 55 Union street, Boston at 50 per box where he can be confidently consulted on every disease incident to the human frame and the patient rely upon the most beneficial course of treatment that can possibly be adopted

COMPOUND SYRUP OF Sarsaparilla and Pipsissewa,

Prepared only by

ALBERT EMERSON,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Apothecaries' Hall, 4 Smith's Block,
BANGOR

THIS article is confidently recommended as a cure for all diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood such as Scrofula Salt Rheum Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases Ulcerous Sores Pimples and Diseases of the Skin generally This Syrup is highly approved by the Medical Faculty and is recommended as an internal remedy only, for the purpose of an alterative on as soon as would expel the same thing to purify and renovate the system in all long standing diseases, where the fluids of the body have become vitiated

Pipsissewa (the Chimaphilla Umbellata or Pyrola Umbellata as it is variously called by Botanists) was first employed medicinally by the Aborigines of America and was first introduced to the notice of the medical profession in 1803, by the late eminent Physician Dr S L Mitchell of New York Dr Pereira of London says that it is an alterative in Scrofula and in other chronic diseases—it is generally supposed to possess almost specific powers, and Dr Barton of London, speaks of a preparation in which it relies wholly for success in Dysentery by which he is enabled to cure Scrofula in its worst forms

When taken into the stomach it acts as a tonic, producing an agreeable sensation and exciting the appetite and digestive process it promotes the action of the secreting organs more especially the Kidneys over which indeed it appears to exercise a specific influence In order to insure essentially the benefit derive from Sarsaparilla we have most admirably combined the Pipsissewa with it so that its tonic and diuretic qualities will materially promote the good effects of Sarsaparilla

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ZACHARY TAYLOR.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

MILLARD FILLMORE.

"For my part, in the dark and troubled night that is upon us, I see no star above the horizon promising light to guide us, but the intelligent, patriotic, united Whig Party of the United States."

DANIEL WEBSTER.

"If Gen. TAYLOR is elected he will do more to curb the Spirit of Conquest, and check the Spreac of Slavery, than any other man the Whigs can elect." JOHN Q. ADAMS.

Make the necessary preparation for the Election.

Those who believe that the present administration of the government have fostered a love of conquest and of war, awakened a thirst for territorial aggrandizement, wasted the treasure of the country piled up a large national debt, wantonly sacrificed thousands of valuable lives, injured the business of the country and paralyzed the arm of industry, should immediately awake to the important duty of uttering their condemnation upon them as unprofitable and untrustworthy servants and of placing in their stead worthy, right thinking and right acting men

The hope of our country's honor and welfare is alone to be found in effecting, by a change of public servants, a change in the policy and the measures of the present administration It becomes, then, the duty of every man who believes such change necessary to make all necessary and honorable preparations for the election, in November next, of Zachary Taylor for President He is a man whose political action will be directed by the conservative principles of a wise and just political creed He has proved himself possessed of the necessary stubborn and intellectual qualities to administer the government with decision and firmness yet tempered with moderation and justice He has shown those traits of character and those eminent virtues which the heart of the people approve and thus confidence in him as a true man is coextensive with his fame He is the man for the times His image is impressed upon the heart of the nation He seems to be the heaven appointed agent to lead the country out of the wilderness of difficulties to the promised land of peace, prosperity, honor and happiness

In a few brief, hurrying weeks, the issue will be decided It is a momentous matter—it involves, as we verily believe the course of the government and the welfare of the people for a long course of years

There is no time to be lost in making the necessary preparation A thorough organization should be effected in every town—documents should be circulated—public speakers should be engaged, and every means of awakening and enlightening the people should be put in requisition, that not a single vote may be lost

The great issue of the presidential election concerns the welfare of the whole people, and they should see to it that they do not throw away their own highest hopes for liberty, for national honor, for personal advantage, on the hollowness of a party name, or a recommendation to demagogues and office holders

We urge upon our political friends in Maine to allow no time to be lost in the great work before them, for when they come to work heartily they will find that the time remaining is short The people of all parties begin to inquire as to the coming political duties They feel that there is a responsibility resting upon them in this matter higher than merely sustaining a political party Now then is the time in which to work—to unfold the enormities, errors and mistakes of the present administration—to show the true principles, and right aims, and appropriate measures of the government; and also to give assurance of the principles, the character of Gen Taylor and the reliance which may be placed in him as a patriot and statesman

Judge Johnson of Pennsylvania in his recent address to the people at Lancaste , gave the following reasons for the election of Zachary Taylor to which we would call the attention of every man, fully believing that when considered they will induce every man to take hold with greater vigor for securing to him the vote of the Pine tree State —

1 He will be bound by the Constitution—and by the Constitution, as it is expounded and explained by the judiciary of the United States

2 He will be bound to take for his guide in his administration of the National Government, the rules and doctrines established and held by our first Presidents

3 He will enter office without pledges—that he may be free to carry out the wishes of the people as expressed by the representatives

4 He will not attempt to influence the action of Congress by foreshadowing his views or actions on mooted questions of doubtful policy, further than required by the Constitution—for will he permit his cabinet to do so

5 He will not embarrass the action of the people's representatives or defeat their will by the exercise of the veto power, or interfere in cases of extreme hasty legislation, or clear violation of the Constitution

6 He will faithfully carry out the wishes of the people as expressed through their representatives on the subject of the tariff; and if he Whigs succeed in giving to the country the principles of the tariff act which will abolition their legislation.

7 He will not veto The passage of laws passed by Congress into slavery, or the improvements of rivers and harbors, or any other matter that constitutionally belongs to them to settle

8 He will prevent and overthrow all schemes and plans for the conquest of other countries or for enlarging the lands of other nations to these Slaves

9 He will prevent war, because having truly looked through its desolating walks, and witnessed its sad havoc of the fireside and hearth stone of his fellow men, he feels that it is an evil constantly to be avoided, unless necessarily requires its existence

10 He will administer the government faithfully according to the Constitution During his life of arduous and trying service, he never failed to perform all his duties well and faithfully

11 He will prove he no man for a conscientious difference of opinion, being a lover of liberty of thought himself, he can afford to tolerate it in others

12 He will, through his great popularity, be enabled to govern our country without the aid of organs or irresponsible cabals—but being the President of the people, to them alone he will be responsible for his actions, without a cringing subserviency to platforms, erected to misguide instead of informing the public mind

Villainy.

A fellow by the name of Joseph L Glines, who formerly possessed a bad reputation, but within a year or two it has been supposed was reformed, perpetrated an infamous offence on Friday evening Early in the evening, he called at the residence of a young girl to whom his brother was paying his addresses, with a horse and chaise told her that his brothes was in a dying condition, and he had come in haste for her On this pretext he hurried her into the chaise and driving very fast, told her that his brother was in A bury, where he left him with two or three doctors in attendance After passing Merrimack Pr dge, he took her from the chaise, on pretence that the house was just back of the road, and on reaching a lonely spot sought by the most villainous threats and outrages to violate her person After he left her she found her way to a house in the vicinity, in a state of delirious excitement so that the people in the house were obliged to confine her to a room and watch her closely during the night, and early on the morning after the excitement had partially subsided, brought her home The brother and father of the girl who were present when Glines left her, followed soon after to the residence of his brother and finding out the imposition, were engaged all night in a fruitless search for them

Glines is about 30 years old, of good appearance, and has a wife and child in New Bedford The girl is only 17

An hour earlier and just before dark, Glines attempted to decoy a girl with whom he had a slight acquaintance, from the Ocean Mill, on the pretext that a Sister at Amsbury was dying, and had sent for her She prepared to leave with him, but on going to obtain leave of absence, was advised not to trust one of whom she knew so little and other means were taken to send to her sister, when she discovered the falsehood

A reward of $100 has been offered by the Selectmen for the apprehension of Glines,—New Bedford Herald

The Nashville Whig, noticing the statement made by Mr Crittenden, that during his recent canvass, he saw or heard of numbers of democrats who avowed their determination to vote for Gen Taylor remarks —

'And it will be that way everywhere Gen Taylor will run stronger in almost every State in the Union than the regular Whig ticket It is obliged to be so It was so with Gen Jackson and Gen Harrison, As long a human nature is what it is such a man as General Taylor will always run ahead of mere party lines When the locofoco prints vociferate that Gen Taylor will get no democratic votes, they don t believe what they say They take that way, in the hope of preventing those democrats who they have good reason to fear will vote for the old hero, from doing so That is a prominent feature in the tactics of the Nashville Union—But it can deceive no one Very few persons there are who will read this paragraph, that do not know of their own knowledge one or more individuals who intend to vote for Taylor who have not heretofore voted the whig ticket As is the case in one neighborhood or county in the State so it is, generally speaking, in all the others We do not believe there is a single county in the State where Gen Taylor will not poll more votes than have been polled for any Whig in the county since 1840. In some counties the gain will be very large All the hard lying in the world cannot deprive the old hero of the confidence reposed in him by his country men, especially if it be done by unscrupulous presses which but a short time since loudly proclaimed him worthy of any station to which the people might call him

☞Thanks to Hodgman & Co s Express, and also to Capt Jewett, and the gentlemanly clerk of the Governor, Mr Crockett, for papers received on yesterday in advance of the mail.

Speech of Captain Bragg.

This distinguished officer is now on a visit to New York, and a number of gentlemen of that city gave him a dinner at the Astor House, at which Philip Hone presided A sentiment having been given complimentary to Captain—now Colonel—Bragg, that gentleman modestly rose, and in some embarrassment responded to the sentiment in some remarks, which are thus briefly sketched by the New York Express, and which are full of interest at this time, bearing strongly as they do, on the character and conduct of Gen Taylor

He said that whatever merit gentlemen chose to award him, or whatever reputation, if any he had gained, was due to the whole of it was due to h [illegible] under whom he served the service he command [illegible] brilliancy of that service [illegible] the training of the lamented [illegible] from whose hands he [illegible] that full efficiency that enabled [illegible] ize itself on the perilous and bloody [illegible] of Buena Vista

To the General in-Chief his acknowledgments were especially due He inspired the whole army with valor and confidence by his presence, not only at Buena Vista, but from the opening of the war on the Rio Grande It is almost impossible for you gentlemen, he said, to understand the character of that man as a commander of an army There is a resolution, a firmness a determination in his manner, and in his purposes, that go a great ways in leading men to victory It was never better illustrated than on the field of Palo Alto He told Major Brown, when he left him with his small force opposite Matamoras, 'Maintain your position I tell, (not I hope to be back, I shall try to be back) but I WILL be back on the 10th Expect me then, and 'maintain your position —Every body that knew him, knew that he would be back, if alive to come The army returned to Point Isabel, as you know On the 8th, they fought at Palo Alto, and when night came on they bivouacked in the open field, and amid the grass with not a tent over them, the General himself wrapped in his blanket, and many of them asleep you, in not a little doubt and gloom Our little army did not feel sure then, that that they could whip three times their number, and those the best troops in Mexico We had not tried our mettle, or measured weapons with them Many an eye did not close that night—Ringgold had been slain A bloody day was before them, and many, if the army went on, were sure to bite the dust But nobody knew or could find out what General Taylor intended to do There he lay wrapped in his blanket, and sleeping except when disturbed by officers asking for orders Some were anxious to ascertain his intentions His only answer was, "Tell the men to sleep Keep quiet Sleep is the main thing necessary Two or three officers were particularly anxious to know whether he intended to go on, or hold his position But the only satisfaction that could be got was sleep He disclosed to none of them his intentions There was a prevailing opinion that it was too perilous a march to go on But Gen! Taylor toward morning, disturbed by some person demanding orders, replied 'allow the men to rest It is time enough at sunrise Then turning over in his blanket, he said to an officer near, 'My mind is made up, my mind is made up,—but nobody knew how his mind was made up—and yet they who knew him, knew if his mind was made up, it was no use to try to change it

In the morning a council of war was summoned and there were eleven officers present, three only of whom advised advance Mind, I cast no censure upon any one A different opinion under such circumstances, might have been expected But they who know the power of Light Artillery, and had seen it play that day, and confidence that it would clear a way for the army back to Fort Brown 'Old Zack'—for that is the name we call him, replied after the consultation had broken up, we will advance in fifteen minutes—and forward they marched for Resaca de la Palma, the result of which you all know Old Zack kept his word to Major Brown,—but alas, the brave and lamented Major had received his death wound

So at Buena Vista the personal character of Gen Taylor had a like influence on the army When the War Department deemed it necessary in order to form a column to invade Mexico via Vera Cruz, to take his regulars from him, he was sure that Santa Anna would attack him 'I am the weak point, he often said, 'and I know he will attack me But he determined to defend his position and in order the best way to defend it, to advance Gen Taylor kept well informed of the approach of the enemy by Gen Wool s scouts moved on to Saltillo then on to Agua Nueva It was proposed at one time to meet the enemy in advance of Agua Nueva but ascertaining by his engineers that their position could be turned, he resolved to fall back to Buena Vista, as the enemy approached him Buena Vista is a military position that any soldier s eye would select for a defence To no particular reason is the credit of his selection due,—for it has been said, that even a woman picked it out as a place to repulse an enemy Various officers gave had the credit of the selection, but whatever particular credit is due, is certainly due to the Commander of him who fought the battle

The Mexicans themselves had fought a battle there Santa Anna knew the ground so well that he ordered his general (Minon) to take and keep possession of it, in order to attack our rear Gen Minon got into our rear as ordered but when he reached Buena Vista he found us in possession of it The 22d of February 4500 men, mostly raw troops, opposed to 20,000 of the enemy, was certainly not a very encouraging day We did not feel quite so happy or so sure of victory as we did the night before We thought of home, and of families and friends, and our chance of death was much better, we thought, than of ever seeing them again For several days previous General Taylor was constantly engaged in making his arrangements, and in writing home It was said, also, that he made his will But he never shrank from his duty 'I may perish, was his thought, 'but I will perish in maintaining the honor of my country' I have to run a terrible risk in assuming the responsibility of making this onward march, but it is the only course that will save my army To stay in Monterey was to be sacrificed by the overwhelming force of the enemy To save all I must risk all'

The battle was fought, you know the result, —but you never can know the influence that the presence of General Taylor had upon the army He alone, so it has seemed to me, could have inspired, by a presence, every soldier in the army, as the Volunteers were inspired The confidence in him was complete He had commanded Volunteers before, and had been successful with them He had never surrendered He had never been whipped, and the idea got abroad that he never could be

When manœuvring any pieces athwart the gullies, (cite this as an example of that confidence, I saw clouds of dust about two miles from me I was painfully anxious I thought Gen al Minon had fallen upon our rear, and attacked our depots, and to meet him was my first thought A man came galloping up through the dust into sight, screaming 'Old Zack is coming! Every soldier gave involuntary utterance to his feelings Old Zack came,—and in fifteen minutes the tide of battle turned—Four thousand five hundred men repulsed twenty thousand,—and to the influence of that presence, under God, I think, I am alive here to dine with you this day

A Gentleman How often did you discharge your pieces that day?

Col Bragg—About 250 rounds to each gun

Another Gentleman—How near was the enemy to your pieces, at any one time?

Col Bragg—Within fifty yards at one time

Another—Where was Gen Taylor?

Col Bragg—Within forty yards.

Col Bragg closed his remarks with saying, (Understood the gentlemen, I am a soldier, and no politician I know General Taylor only as a soldier and a man. I speak of him only as the commander in chief of our army in Mexico have nothing to do with his politics or yours. It is the duty of a soldier obediently to obey whomsoever you put in power I could not help speaking of my commander when thus toasted, as I have been by you, for services under him I have nothing to do with politics

A Fight between a Frog and a Rat.

A most desperate encounter took place between a frog and a rat, at a brook near the slaughter house of Mr Uriah Wiggin, in this town a few days ago It appears that a rat came down to the brook to drink, and discovering a frog, "with force and arms made an attack upon him, by making a fierce grasp with his teeth, no sooner did the rat make his hold, than the frog dove into the water, dragging his antagonist with him, where he remained until the rat was compelled to let go, and make for dry land, closely pursued by the frog As soon as the frog appeared above the water he was again attacked by the rat, and a second time became the subject for cold water bathing This feat was several times performed, until the rat from exhaustion and drowning fell a prey to his antagonist After the frog became fully assured that his combatant was dead, he seated himself upon his carcass with all the complaisance imaginable, where he remained for near half an hour, exulting, as it were over his hard won victory Several persons were present and witnessed the fight.—[Dover N H Gazette

Nothing is more easy than to magnify a trifling circumstance into a serious misfortune by suffering the mind to dwell upon, and place it in every possible point of view, each resuming darker shade than the former It is the common fault of a vivid imagination to exaggerate either good or evil

Last summer a young lady, who was in a whortleberry field swallowed while laughing a berry after which she was attacked with an irritation of the throat and also at times with fits of coughing though she had no other signs of a cold A month afterwards in one of these fits she threw up the berry It had propagated in her throat and a full grown whortleberry bush was ejected Two quarts of whortleberries were gathered from and the family lived on nothing for a week, besides giving some away to the neighbors.—Traveller

Catching the Sun.

In crossing the Atlantic says a friend some years ago—we were very much amused by the remarks of two verdant sons of the Emerald Isle It being near meridian the captain was engaged in taking meridian altitude, during which process he was narrowly watched by the two before mentioned At length their patience could stand it no longer, and one cried 'Arra, Jerry, what's the captain doing? "Whist Paddy, replied Jerry in a whisper, he's after trying to catch the sun in a brass rat trap"

L. FE'S SUNNY HOURS.

BY WILLIAM GROSART

Through Life's dark and thorny path
Its gone the silent tomb
It get some spots of sunshine hath
That smile amid the gloom
The tract who weal or woe partakes,
Unchanged whate er his lot,
Who kindly soothes the heart that aches,
Is a pure sunny spot

The wife who half our burden bears
And turns not a moan,
Who ready hand wipes off our tears
Unknowing all her own,
Who treasures every kindly word
Each harsh one forgets
And e rub lithely as a bird—
She's the a sunny spot

The child who lifts at morn and eve,
In pray r, its tiny voice
Who gives us where or its parents grieve,
And joys when they rejoice,
In whose right eye young hearts us glows,
Whose heart without a blot,
Is fresh and pure as Summer's rose—
That child's a sunny spot

There's yet, upon Life's weary road
One spot of brighter glow
Where Sorrow hath forgot its load
And tears no longer flow,
Friendship, stay where—love decline,
Our ship his honor blot,
But still, undimmed that spot will shine—
Religion's lights that spot

New York Galvanic Institute 70 Nassau St, May 21, 1842

I have examined Mr J W Parker's newly invented Patent Spiral Truss, and concur with Doctors Valentine Mott, Stevens and Parker, in their opinions of its principle and structure Having an inguinal rupture myself, and tried various kinds of Trusses for the last ten years, I could desire no type of these and finding the adaptation of the spiral pressure and the setting of the pad as much easier than any others I have no hesitation in recommending it, in preference to any I have seen

SAMUEL H P LEE, M C M S

To Mr J W Parker—Sir,—I comply with pleasure with your request for my opinion of your Abdominal Supporter for ruptures Utica I have recommended it in many cases, and in no instance have I heard much satisfaction expressed with the instrument It is light, keeps its place very well gives the support required, and is not so expensive as to prevent its use by those whose means are small, and who so frequently suffer from Peritonitis. I give to it with great pleasure my recommendation

NOTICE.

THE AMERICAN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE Pierce's Patent manufactured by Johnson & Cox Troy, NY

The aforesaid Patent having been fully established by the judgment of the Circuit Court of the United States at Boston we hereby give notice that GARDNER CHILSON, of Boston, has the exclusive sale of said Stove for Massachusetts Rhode Island, Maine and New Hampshire. All infringements on said Patent will be promptly prosecuted JOHNSON & COX.

Troy, N Y, July 1st, 1848

The American Air-Tight Cooking Stove.

If this is not the best Stove in use, why so many attempts to infringe upon it? This suit was brought to sustain the Patent, and to stop the infringements, and after a most thorough legal investigation, these rights were promptly decided, fully sustaining this Patent

More than Ten Thousand of these Stoves are now in use. The testimony of this multitude, the past year, establishes the fact beyond a doubt that there are more good and useful qualities combined in this Stove than ever was, or probably ever will be found in any other Stove The fire-brick oven top is of great value in equalizing the heat around the oven, absorbing the steam, causing the bread, &c to rise and bake light and quick—and giving bread, puddings, &c that flavor of the house brick oven The kitchen, for roasting in front, is complete The summer arrangement for broiling frying, boiling, heating of irons, &c. is admirable—The great economy of fuel, substantial construction and general good quality of this Stove is the cause of its universal admiration.
